

About us

Rejuva Glow Beauty, LLC - Empowering Beauty

As the CEO and founder of Rejuva Glow Beauty, LLC, I am Julian Murray. Since 2009, I've been a licensed cosmetologist. My journey began with a personal struggle with hormonal acne that left dark marks and scarring on my face, leading to a loss of self-esteem.

This experience ignited my passion for skincare and beauty. I am committed to helping individuals with similar skin concerns, knowing the impact of not feeling confident due to imperfections. I specialize in skincare and continuously stay updated on the latest trends and techniques.

Building personal relationships with each client is my priority, and I aim to provide exceptional, trend-setting services. Join me on this journey and let's embrace beauty, confidence, and empowerment together.
